FROM THE MINISTER'S DESK

Yearning to Stay Connected

by Rev. Dr. Dong-Ha Kim

In Reformed tradition, 'life of the church' is defined by 'worship,' 'fellowship,' and 'mission.' These are, in essence, the primary components which define and determine the vitality and the integrity of the community which is the church today. It is with no less aspiration that I look forward to working with the congregation of Knox Presbyterian, Woodstock.

Before we delve into some of the details concerning our church and these foundational pillars, I wish to point out that these pillars are truly God's gift for the faithful to participate in the relational life of our Triune God on earth. We are blessed with the sense of our being together in God, and of God in us, through worship, fellowship, and mission.

The current pandemic and its daunting challenges will likely be around for some time yet. On that note, and as the church, we will need to continue navigating around many obstacles all the while engaging these three foundational pillars.

If we have learned anything over the past two years of pandemic restrictions, it is that many of us have developed methods for staying connected through the myriad of technology available to us, computers, tablets, and smartphones. And where such technologies remain elusive, we even have at our disposal the services of the tried and tested toll-free telephone systems.

While these are crucial to help us get through this pandemic, we do hope that you will continue to access them even beyond the pandemic; they will be instrumental in keeping us connected and unhindered by any geographical and/or time constraints.

Worship is perhaps one area that has undergone the most noticeable transformation in how it is engaged. Many congregations, including Knox, Woodstock, have readily adapted to 'online' forms of worship early on in the pandemic. 'Online' is a broad term that encompasses many forms of virtual worship, including the real time 'Zoom gathering,' and 'Pre-recording' of the service to be made available to church members with access to the internet. Under our current restrictions, we have discerned that moving towards an online service of worship, meaning pre-recording the service and, suspending our in-person service, at least for the duration of January, was the best course of action.

While such decision regarding worship will bring both a sense of familiarity and a yearning for the 'in-person' service, you will note that the same format of service as in the 'in-person' service has been maintained. 'Pre-recorded' services, for all intended purposes, encompass the same level of commitment on the part of worship leaders.

At the same time, worship leaders are painfully aware of the shortfalls of 'on-line' worship services. Nothing is equivalent to actually being at the service in-person, being able to see the smiles on each other's face, shaking hands, and giving that much-needed hug to someone special! Suffice to say, some of you are yearning for the return of the in-person worship service, and fellowship. I want to assure you that the leadership at Knox Presbyterian Church, Woodstock, is prayerfully respectful of the civil laws and health guidelines, seeking best practices and means of enabling our members to encounter God through worship.

Fellowship, that which so many of us look forward to each week, has been but a fleeting memory in recent years, again as a result of the pandemic restrictions. As a congregation, we really are a caring group of people, a model of friendship, compassionate service, and leadership in our society. Some would say that church fellowship is where we get to hone the virtues and practices inspired by our Triune God. When we did gather for a while under careful restrictions, many of us have become quite adept in reading our smiles and sorrows over and above the face masks. Where physical gatherings are not permitted, many of our members, most especially the elders and those on the pastoral care committee, have stepped up to convey the prayers and the love of others especially to our shut-ins and anyone else in need. Again, while nothing equates to the actual 'in-person' times of fellowship, what continues to happen within the Knox Presbyterian Church community is something to be proud of. It really does represent, in spirit, our yearning to share the sense of unity, community, and participation in the lives of others. In a way, we really are taking our church out to our communities when adversities such as the pandemic throws obstacles in front of us.

Mission is also an important part of the life of the Knox Presbyterian Church, Woodstock. Both the combined effort of the Women's Mission Society (WMS) and the 'Mission Committee' are actively involved in outreach works through multiple venues. Leadership within both committees, without question, are centered in the gospel of Jesus Christ. The level of commitment in each committee are hardly contained by the challenges of the current pandemic.

My friends, God wishes to stay connected with each of us, I believe; in no less manner, our hearts are yearning to stay connected with God. In the upcoming year, and beyond, I pray that our participation in worship, fellowship, and mission will enable us to remain on our journey of faith no matter what.

Respectfully
submitted,
Rev. Dr. Dong-Ha Kim

Minister's Report -

Christmas Eve Service - The alarming rise in COVID-19 cases (Omicron variant) exceeded all anticipations in planning for the Christmas Eve services. An early morning (Christmas Eve) discussion amongst the COVID Committee and some of the elders led towards the discernment to cancel the 'in-person' services planned for the day. As plans were already in place to record the 3:30pm service, participants in the service proceeded as planned and the service was recorded. George Seggewiss most kindly forwarded the link of the recording to the congregation.

SESSION NOTES - January 4, 2022

The COVID Committee met via Zoom on Thursday, December 29th to prayerfully discern the future worship gatherings at Knox, Woodstock. It was deemed prudent then to suspend both in-person worship service and Sunday School gatherings at least through the duration of January. Worship services, therefore, will continue to be recorded throughout this period and links sent out to our members. In order to enrich the virtual worship service experiences, both the copies of weekly bulletins and devotional writings will be included in the weekly congregational e-mails.

For some of our members, computer literacy and/or accessibility to internet remain a challenge. We will explore how we may best address such challenges. For instance, providing printed manuscripts of my sermons is something that I'm willing to entertain.

Visitations - Visitations, especially to our shut-in members, remain an important aspect of congregational ministry at Knox. The latest challenges imposed by the Omicron variant have reinforced the importance of the church keeping in touch with our members. We will endeavor to utilize whatever means are available to us, including: Video conferencing (zoom/skype), 'pen-pal writing', telephone calls, and other means to keep in touch with our members.

As always, I do appreciate being notified of any pastoral situations that I may not be aware of.

Bible Study - I remain committed to enriching our Sunday worship services through bi-weekly Bible Study gathering.

Proposal:

Topic of Study: Topical Study of "Acts" to examine the life of the early church.

Date & Time: Bi-weekly, Commencing Wednesday, January 12, 2022 @ 7:00pm

Mode of gathering: Zoom (to start)

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Kim

COVID Committee – January 25th

by Anne Miller

First, I want to say thank you to everyone who has continued to do all that they can to flatten the spike of Covid cases due to the Omicron variant. I know that many are fully vaccinated and have gotten their booster or are in process of getting it. The cold temperatures have made it a bit easier to want to stay inside and away from others who might be infected.

As I write, we have outbreaks in Caressant Care, Cedarview, Oxford Gardens and Woodingford. Few of us do not know someone who has had Omicron. We have all had to exercise patience as supply chain issues arise due to border concerns and services are delayed due to those who are sick or caring for those who are sick being absent from work. We continue to pray for all who are battling illness or grieving loss of loved ones, for all healthcare and other frontline workers, and for our children, youth, parents and educators as schools have reopened.

At our January 25th meeting, the Covid team reaffirmed our decision to discontinue public worship for the month of January out of an abundance of caution. While Omicron seems to be on a gradual decline, we want to keep our Knox family safe and are in solidarity with those who work the frontlines in our hospitals and care homes. With the province's recently announced staged reopening plan, we are recommending to Session that public worship resume on Sunday February 27th. Stay tuned for confirmation of this date. Until then, we will continue to pre-record worship and follow all public health guidelines. Thanks to all who are participating in these services, enabling us to worship from home.

Notes about reopening for worship:

The normal protocols will be in place of pre-screening at home, masking, distancing and sanitizing or hand washing.

COVID Committee - January 25th

We will be asking our Sunday school families to check in at the ramp door instead of the parking lot door.

For those who have difficulty hearing, we have hearing assistive devices which are disinfected after use. Ask an usher if you would like to use one.

We are grateful to our committees and midweek groups for their flexibility in honouring the maximum of the 5 participants rule last month. As of January 31st, the number allowed in a group indoors is being raised to 10. Groups are welcome to gather with up to 10 people as long as all protocols are followed (members sign in to the logbook, sanitize or hand wash, are masked and remain 2 m/6 feet apart). With the government's current plan, the number of participants can rise to 25 indoors as of February 21st, and we pray that this plan can hold.

Thank you again for your patience and flexibility, and for honouring the health of others as well as your own in this time. We will gather again soon, and until then, stay safe. Feel free to contact anyone on the Covid team with questions or concerns – Nick Hardeman, Rev. Kim, Anne or Josie Miller, Gord Taylor or Mikayla Voortman.

Note from our Music Director

The year 2022 is well on its way and it is my wish that you are doing well, despite the uncertain times in which we live. At Knox Church, office administrator, Kim Kenny continues to be welcomed, and custodian Michael Conte has returned from a time of recuperation following hip replacement surgery. It is good to be working with Rev Kim.

Recently the hymn "One More Step Along the World I Go", #641 was sung at the pre-recording of the weekly worship service. Sydney B. Carter (1915-2004) wrote the words and the music. He was an English poet, songwriter, and folk musician who was born in Camden Town, London. He is best known for the song "Lord of the Dance" (1967), whose music is based on the "Shaker Allegro", more commonly known as "Simple Gifts". Carter achieved the remarkable feat of composing two of the five most popular songs sung in assemblies in British schools. In 1996, a survey of the copyright work most commonly requested for use in collective worship put his "One More Step..." in first place, with his possibly more famous "Lord of the Dance" at number five.

The third verse in particular, is a source of comfort to me.

"As I travel through the bad and good keep me travelling the way I should.

Where I see no way to go, you'll be telling me the way, I know.
And it's from the old I travel to the new. Keep me traveling along with you."

Take good care, stay safe and keep praying.

God Bless,
Janet

December 7, 2021

Eight members and six guests gathered with great joy for the first time since Covid began! We met in the Friendship Centre and were delighted to welcome Rev. Dr. Kim and his wife, Kyoungmi, to celebrate with us.

The meeting opened by presenting our dear friend, Nancy Wright, with a special card for her retirement, which was made by Gwen Wilson. A tiny pocket prayer shawl was included in the card.

The Christmas Worship service was provided by the National Women's Missionary Society and was written this year by Rev. Theresa McDonald-Lee. The service was led by Susan McLennan and Elaine Stevens, with the Christmas story read by Marg McCurdy and lovely instrumental carol music provided by Janet Vanderspek.

Following the service a short business meeting took place. The Treasurer's report was given by Elaine Stevens. It was agreed by all members present that we will not hold a meeting from January to March. In person meetings will start again April.

Motion: June Masters/Joan Willsie that $500 be donated to Presbyterian World Service & Development for B.C. flood relief.

With the business concluded, we enjoyed a time of visiting and sharing, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan McLennan

It's Cold Out There!

by Nora Martin

Most of us think it's cold to be outside in the winter. Some of us enjoy the cold, and others hate it, but I think we'd all agree that we are happy for our warm clothes and warm homes, especially in the winter. I, for one, can't imagine what it must be like to be homeless at any time of year, let alone in this frigid weather. But as we likely all know, there are homeless people here in Woodstock. Maybe we feel helpless to do anything about it. Some people even believe that people who are homeless are so by choice, or at least that it's their own fault. But whatever our personal point of view, we can't escape the Gospel message we profess to believe that commands us to take care of people who are less fortunate than we are.

One of the ways we can do that is by supporting charities like our local Operation Sharing. Some of us donated coats and other winter wear last fall in aid of helping people who are in need. Now we are once again coming up on February 26, the date of this year's Coldest Night of the Year walk, which is a fundraiser for our local homeless shelter, The Inn, run out of Old St. Paul's Anglican Church, a familiar landmark to all of us, and connected to Operation Sharing.

Three of us from Knox are walking in this fundraiser this year again: Lynda Whiteford, Steve McInnis, and Nora Martin. We are asking for your support through donating to our efforts to raise money for The Inn.

Helping People Hear God Speak in Extreme Crisis

Every two seconds a person is forced to flee. Fleeing one's homeland under dire circumstances and being forced to leave behind family and hard-earned possessions is traumatic. Language and cultural barriers add another layer to their challenges as refugees try to find their feet in a new, alien country.

Canada has welcomed people of diverse cultures over the years, and in the recent months, as more people from Afghanistan are arriving, CBS along with Jesus Network are providing Bible and Scripture resources in Persian languages (Pashto and Darsi). The joy of being able to experience the Word of God in one's heart language is not only comforting but also healing.

To learn more about the work of the CBS, go to www.biblesociety.ca.

Operation Sharing

Operation Sharing's Extended Family Project is searching for additional volunteers and participants. The program has several volunteers who are offering tutoring in math and English for students up to Grade 11, said Eric Schmiedl, coordinator of Extended Family. A mix of face-to-face tutoring, as well as tutoring through Zoom, is being offered, as are such things as assistance in grocery shopping and going with people to doctor's visits. Prospective volunteers (and not just tutors) and participants who wish to take part can email Schmiedl at ericschmiedl@yahoo.ca or call 519-539-5926.

Thank you note from Nancy

Hello everyone... I miss you!

My truly heartfelt thanks for your many many kindnesses and generous gifts upon my retirement! We have found the perfect spot to hang the signed picture of the church, and though the trip to Calgary has been postponed due to COVID, it's something to look forward to in the not too distant future (I hope)!

You're in my prayers every single day - please take very good care of yourselves! Nancy ♥

Truly a Church Family

Thank you so much to everyone who has introduced themselves and helped me to feel so welcome! Knox Church truly feels like family already! I'm looking forward to getting to know more of you as the months (and years) go on.

A little about myself -

I'm a mom to 4 grown kids, ages 24 to 33 (2 boys and 2 girls), along with their spouses, all of whom bring such joy to my life. However, my heart has been captured by 6 tiny humans, my precious grandbabies, ages 1 to 5 (3 boys and 3 girls).

In my spare time, when I'm not hanging out with family and especially my sweet little ones, I enjoy crocheting. It was a pleasure to be able to join the Prayer Shawl group in January. I also have a great love for music, so you might even catch me singing harmony with my Dad and sister, or even dabbling a little in playing the ukulele or piano.

I look forward to seeing what the future holds for me here at Knox and can't wait to get to know more of you in 2022!

Blessings, Kim Kenny (Administrative Secretary)

Heartfelt Thanks

I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks for your prayers, cards and kind words of sympathy in the loss of my beloved Mother, Shirley Sinkowski on November 18, 2021. Special thanks to Rev. Dr. Dong-Ha Kim for his comforting and reassuring words.

Sincerely, Carol and George Yungblut.

Please Consider Preauthorized Remittance

We at Knox have had a pre-authorized remittance plan (PAR) in place for years, which is a great way for our members to conveniently give their gifts to our ministry each month. There are many benefits to the PAR plan:

- Your contributions will be made regularly even if you are away on business or vacation.
- You will not have to write a cheque or carry cash to church each week, or make a special trip to drop it off.
- The church will receive your contributions consistently, which will help pay all the bills even in the summer months when many are away.
- It will save time and work for those who count and register the offerings each week.
- Avoids “catch up periods”.
- You can budget your monthly giving.
- Regular support of your church in the amount that you choose.

How the plan works:

- You sign up for the plan, decide if you want to give on the 1st or the 15th of the month, then indicate the amount you wish to give for work at Knox Church, Presbyterians Sharing, PWS&D or other Ministries.
- The plan can be changed as you wish at any time by notifying Kim in the office.

Registration pamphlets are available on the tables at the front and back doors; please take one and consider this as a way of sharing your blessings.

“Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.”
